	Year Launched:	1998	Designer:	Greg Young
Description:	Styled like the renowned Mumm 30, but a little larger, the Bull 9000 has a large open cockpit. The carbon mast is light and strong to carry the big mashead and fractional spinnakers. The keel is fitted with a large lead bulb and all connected to a central load box, making attachment and removal simple and fail-safe. The rudder is a powerful carbon-fibre structure and represents the latest strength for weight ratios. The carbon- fibre spinnaker pole pivots on thge track set on the horns allowing superb control and positioning of the sail tack. The Bull 9000 has been designed as a sports boat with true offshore ability
