Bruce Farr designed performance cruiser. She has a remarkable race record over many years at HIRW. The boat has always had regular use and care. Engine has been renewed, and new standing rigging in 2019 and included in sale is a set of regatta and cruising sails. She is licenced for skippered charter vessel on Sydney Harbour. Currently in regular use. 3 cabin layout in light ash colour timber finish. There is a deck-accessed sail locker forward with good storage for sails and ancillary gear. Some timber discolouration, but all appears sound and seaworthy 'Eagle Rock' has been professionally maintained since new. A feature of the boat is the laid teak decks, although they do show some signs of age, her look is enhanced with this added feature.
