This stunning Beneteau Oceanis 430 yacht has been beautifully maintained and will impress even the most fastidious of buyers. Exceptional effort has been made by its sole owner to protect and inhibit UV damage, wear and tear. With the original cushions stored, off the boat and protected since purchase. The Beneteau Oceanis 430 models are extremely sought after for their huge internal dimensions and great sailing ability. The cockpit is spacious and very comfortable with great access over the classic sugar scoop stern.

'Aeolus' boasts three generous cabins, and master with ensuite. The galley is linear to port, and offers a great entertaining space with plenty of bench space to cook for friends or family. There is also a huge chest fridge with more than enough room to keep the supplies up for any decent journey. If you are considering a yacht for the family, perhaps a cruise up the coast or as a liveaboard 'Aeolus' is definitely a must inspect! She is in remarkable condition and a pleasure to show, please contact us today to discuss her vessel specifications or to organise a private inspection.
