This 1985 Borresen BB10 is a sleek and timeless 10 metre performance renowned for its high build quality and racing pedigree. The BB10 combines a lightweight fibreglass hull, fractional sloop rig, and narrow beam to deliver impressive speed and responsiveness under sail. Its large cockpit and simple deck layout make it ideal for both competitive one design or club racing and spirited day sailing, while the minimalist interior reflects its pure performance focus. With a recently upgraded electric motor this yacht is ready to sail for its next owners.
