'Margot' is an extremely beautiful Oyster 575 built in 2013. She has an incredible level of finish and updates making her ideal for your next adventure around the world. With the exceeding specification and recent refit she is ready for her new owner. With only two owners she was always well maintained and lightly used over the last years. She is an amazing all-rounder, with comfortable layout and open spaces. Below the deck you will find 4 cabins with well equipped galley and generous saloon. Perfect set up for family and friends joining you for the next trip. She is very easy to handle and fun to sail by two. Hydraulic in-mast furling mainsail and headsail are easily controlled from the cockpit, all you have to do is sit back and enjoy the ride!
