Inspired by the timeless New England lobster boat design, 'Rosie' combines classic styling with exceptional seaworthiness, practicality, and comfort. Built with a strong focus on craftsmanship and reliability, she offers the reassuring feel of a true cruising boat designed to handle sea conditions with confidence. Her elegant lines, wide side decks, and protected cockpit create a perfect balance between functionality and relaxed cruising.

The spacious teak cockpit provides an inviting entertaining area with generous seating, excellent storage, and easy engine access, while the protected helm station offers outstanding visibility underway. Below deck, the warm and practical interior features quality timber finishes, a fully equipped galley, convertible dinette, and comfortable accommodation with separate shower and toilet compartments.

Combining classic character with practical modern usability, Rose island 38 is a perfect boat for entertaining guests, or extended weekends on the water.
